IN THE MATTER OF;

AMERICAN-DAIRY.COM, INC.,
ALPATI PAUL SCHWENKE,
JAMIS MELWOOD JOHNSON,

Respondents.

OBJECTION TO DIVISION'S REQUEST FOR RULING AND REQUEST FOR ORAL ARGUMENT

Docket No. SD-06-0010
Docket No. SD-06-0011
Docket No. SD-06-0012

Respondent, Jamis M. Johnson, comes now pro se, and hereby objects to the pleading filed by the Division entitled Request for Ruling regarding pending motions before this tribunal on Johnson's motion to dismiss, a motion for sanctions which has not even actually been filed a motion to strike Division's improper reply, and upon the Division's motion to strike. Briefing has not been completed on all the motions as allowed by rules and the one motion, for sanctions for the Division's improper filings, has not yet even been filed pursuant to the safe harbor provision of U.R.Civ. Pro. 11 which had allowed the Division at least 21 days time to withdraw their improper filing before any motion even could have been filed with the tribunal. The Division has filed an Opposition to the Motion for Sanctions which has not been filed to which Respondent will be entitled under U.R.Civ.Pro. 7(d)) to file a reply when such motion for sanctions is actually filed. Respondent Johnson intends to file such Motion, and a reply.

Respondent Johnson hereby requests oral argument with respect to all pending motions after briefing is in fact completed upon them and they are properly submitted for decision.

DATED this July 31, 2006.
